Julian, Age 14

Carly's Club Member

Last October I was diagnosed with Acute Lymphoblastic Leukemia. They used chemotherapy drugs to kill the leukemic cells and those make you feel pretty sick, but the doctors and nurses at Roswell Park are exceptional.

I have to get a bone marrow transplant. Luckily, my 11-year-old younger brother, Sean, is a perfect match and will be my donor. After Day 100 they'll start to wean me off the immune-suppressant drugs and I should be able to start my sophomore year of high school.

All of the organizations that help me and my family, like Carly's Club, Roswell Park, and many others, are so special that we can't say enough about them. My family says it's like an invisible safety net that most of us are unaware of until it's needed. We are so lucky to live in Buffalo, where all these great people stand out!
